

ADDUL ALI

Born in 1978 in Brooklyn NY Addul is no stranger to adversity and hard times having been put into the NYS foster care system at only 6 months old with his identical twin brother. After graduating as valedictorian from Central Islip alternative high school he entered the military at 17 years old. Addul served his country honorably while learning the importance of accomplishing a mission, teamwork and dedication. After his release from the military Addul was signed to a major record deal with Sony Records. This experience helped him develop public speaking skills that would prove invaluable. Relocating from New York to North Carolina, Addul Settled in Kannapolis starting a family and business while his membership in the Masonic Order fostered his desire to serve the community. As Worshipful Master of St. Johns Lodge 204 Addul was recognized by the Kannapolis City Council in being appointed to the The City of Kannapolis Community Development Commision. In his subsequent appointment Addul was nominated and elected to serve as the Chair of the Commision. After recognizing the he identified with the core values of the Republican Party Addul Joined the Cabarrus G.O.P. Addul has worked to support Republican Candidates in the county and the 8th Congressional District earning him nomination and election to the Cabarrus GOP executive committee. He is currently the Senior Consultant to the National League of Concerned Citizens, on the board of Directors at Positive Youth Transformation Inc, North Davidson Academy (board Chair), and several other regional and national non profits while touring the country with his twin brother inspiring audiences their story of struggle and survival that led to hope and solutions.
